South Africa, a country situated at the southern end of the African continent, is a quilt of landscapes, fauna and flora. Each of the country's nine provinces offers visitors a unique view into some aspect of South African life, and that which Africa is so popular for, its natural wild side.

Port Elizabeth offers visitors a choice of stunning beaches, interesting museums and memorials, award-winning wildlife destinations, cultural and historical experiences, and some of the friendliest folk in the country.

Port Elizabeth - aka the Windy City, Ibhayi ('the bay' in isiXhosa) or the Friendly City - is a coastal hub in the Eastern Cape where locals proudly proclaim that everything lies within 15 minutes' drive of the airport.

It is one of the largest cities in South Africa, and lies 770km east of Cape Town, where it forms part of the Nelson Mandela Bay Metro.

The region incorporates a 40km stretch of beaches and is an outdoor-lover's paradise offering a variety of activities including boat cruises and diving opportunities.

Nelson Mandela Bay prides itself on offering the Big Five - lion, rhino, buffalo, leopard and elephant. Visitors may also be fortunate enough to see a great white shark or a southern right whale in the bay waters.
