

University Credit Program (UCP)

STUDY ABROAD AT UCR, EARN ACADEMIC CREDIT & THE OPPORTUNITY TO EARN A UC CERTIFICATE

Get a UC education and academic credit through our University Credit Program (UCP). Take advantage of the unique opportunity to be a visiting student at UCR. Take select undergraduate, graduate, and academic courses at UCR Extension and gain in-depth knowledge in a variety of subjects. Build important academic and career connections for your future. Earn a University of California professional certificate to enhance your CV, and set you apart in the workplace.

UCP students must demonstrate an advanced understanding of English language and have a strong academic foundation. Once you check with your home institution to find out which UCR courses are transferable, choose credit classes from across all disciplines. Gain access to courses in over 80 undergraduate majors and 50 graduate programs.

Here's How It Works

Choose select courses from UCR.

UCR MAIN CAMPUS (UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE LEVEL)

Courses are available in the sciences, humanities, and many other areas at both the undergraduate and graduate level in the daytime and evening.

- Our Academic Advising office helps you create the best schedule, and ensures you have a full course load of 12 units.*
- UCR is one of only three UC campuses with an undergraduate program in Business.

* Students may not get into their first choice of courses because availability may be limited.

 Some courses, such as in the MBA program, are restricted and/or require additional fees.

UCR EXTENSION

UCR Extension offers a range of academic courses in a variety of areas during the late afternoon and evenings.

- Many UCR Extension courses carry credit and they offer a unique opportunity to study with experts who are real-world practitioners.
- Take advantage of the opportunity to earn a UC Professional Certificate or participate in a specialized program.
- Build your professional network, make connections you can use in your future career, and learn the latest techniques in your desired career.
